How Deluxe Strategic Sourcing Works

- » We analyze your current procedures, pricing and processes and report our findings and recommendations to you.
- » You receive a custom, feature-rich ecommerce website to automate ordering of the supplies you need – from business cards to dog biscuits – at the right price, place and time.
- » From end-to-end, we handle supply fulfillment and distribution on your behalf, saving you time, money and hassle so you can focus on more value-added tasks.

Strategically control costs to enhance your bottom line

Upfront Assessment

Get an in-depth analysis of your current procedures, pricing and processes, along with tailored strategies you can use to improve.

Consolidated Buying Power

Get the products, items and supplies you need at the best price – our expert procurement professionals source across the globe and handle all the logistics on your behalf.

Ordering Automation

Control and track what users order from a custom ecommerce website, restrict item availability by user login and more.

Metrics Tracking

Drive program results with standard and customized reports to identify usage, shipment, and cost-saving opportunities.

Hard dollar reduction.

DSS' massive buying power allows clients to reduce total procurement-related costs.

Process Improvements

By establishing approved products and quantity limits for each branch or cost center, DSS guarantees predictability and lowers spending. Deluxe provides free consulting and design services to deliver process efficiencies and control costs.

Resource savings.

Using a single source to manage and distribute supplies frees up valuable staff time, as well as space in your branches and warehouses. Deluxe has an on-demand approach to inventory management.

Increase accountability and expense awareness.

Custom e-commerce site will deliver increased expense control and accountability. Cost Center/General ledger allocation reports on usage and associated costs promote accountability.

DSS solves various problems that financial institutions face.

Whether it's spending control and profitability, transparency and accountability, risk management and disaster recovery, or all of the above—Deluxe is a trusted partner that helps hundreds of financial institutions optimize their operational and marketing consumable products.
