On behalf of the 2023 Resolutions Committee, a quorum of which met on Thursday, September 14, 2023, I would like to report that the following resolutions were adopted by unanimous consent:

- A memorial resolution that the Kentucky Bankers Association, its members, and its staff express our appreciation for the opportunity to have shared time with Debra K. Stamper for 27 years and our sorrow at having lost her before we were prepared and extending condolences to her family.

- A resolution urging Congress to adopt measures that require taxation for credit unions, subjects them to the same regulatory standards that banks must follow and prohibit credit unions from purchasing banks unless they are subject to the same taxation.

- A resolution urging the Kentucky General Assembly to adopt bank modernization statutes and revise the funding for the Kentucky Department of Financial Institutions to ensure that Kentucky bankers can continue to serve every community in the Commonwealth.

- A resolution urging the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau to reconsider the implementation of 1071.

- A resolution urging Congress to adopt the Secure and Fair Enforcement (SAFE) Banking Act to permit banks to serve the needs of their customers.

- A resolution urging Congress to adopt the Access to Credit for our Rural Economy Act to permit banks to serve the needs of their farmers, ranchers, and rural homeowners.

- A resolution that supports the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America, American Bankers Association, Texas Bankers Association and others in challenging the constitutionality and legality of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and its rules and regulations.
• A resolution expressing the Kentucky Bankers Association’s appreciation to Senate Leader McConnell, Congressman Barr, Congressman Guthrie, Congressman Comer, and Congressman McGarvey.

• A resolution expressing the Kentucky Bankers Association’s and its members’ sincere thanks and appreciation to Ruth O’Bryan Bale for her dedication and leadership during the past year. The Kentucky Bankers Association also extends its appreciation to the directors, officers and staff of South Central Bancshares of Kentucky, Inc., who made it possible for Ruthie to devote time to this position and to allow the Association to benefit from her contribution.

• A resolution to express the Kentucky Bankers Association’s sincere thanks and appreciation to each of the retiring Board members for their efforts, dedication and leadership during their terms of office:

  Mr. James Hillebrand
  Mr. Charles Beach III
  Mr. Alex Cook
Mr. Anthony Kinder and
Ms. Jamie Coffey

- A resolution recognizing the benefits that the 2023 Annual Convention Sponsors and Exhibitor participants bring to the Convention and express our thanks for their participation.
